

1 BILLION RISING REVOLUTION

FEBRURAY 14, 2015 ESPANOLA RISING DAY

A Time to Heal Our Youth; End the Violence!

On June 8, 2014, Victor Villalpando, a 16 year old rising star of Espanola was shot and killed by an Espanola Police Officer. This shocking incident not only shows the mounting disregard for male youth of color in this country, but is a terrorist act against women, as their children are being taken from them by senseless and violent means. On Espanola Rising Day we will join in revolution with communities all over the world to speak out against violence towards women, and to help our community heal from the tragic loss of one of itos children.
